$300 Bond Allowed In Trolley Shooting

M. A. Weeks, Birmingham Electric Co. trolley operator, charged with assault with intent to murder, was released from County Jail today under $300 bond.

Weeks was arrested today following the shooting of a Negro passenger on an Ensley streetcar. The wounded man, Samuel Lee Williams, 34, of 133 16th-av. s, is also charged with assault with intent to murder. He was shot in the abdomen.

Weeks told police that Williams scuffled with him after the Negro objected to taking a seat in a section of the car reserved for Negroes. Two other Negroes were also wounded in the shooting.
