Gunshot Wound—

Negro Dies Of Trolley Conductor's Bullet

A Negro shot here Nov. 20 by a streetcar conductor is dead today.

Sammy Lee Williams, 34, died in a Birmingham hospital yesterday. His home was at 133 16th Avenue, West.

M. A. Weeks, 54, the conductor, who admitted shooting Williams during an altercation on a Pratt City streetcar, is free on $300 bond after being charged with assault with intent to murder.

Williams, likewise, was charged with assault with intent to murder.

Detective Capt. C. L. Pierce said police will place no further charges against Weeks, as the case is coming up for investigation by a Grand Jury.

Two other Negroes on the streetcar suffered minor injuries from stray bullets.
